

Learning Outcome of the B.A. HONOURS and GENERAL Courses of History

Students will learn to apply historical methods to evaluate critically the record of the past and how historians and others have interpreted it. The of B.A. History Programmes offer the students access to recent historiography in the field organized in a pedagogical form that is accessible and interesting. It is structured for students in an inter-disciplinary programme providing them with a concise and thorough introduction to the discipline of History. The programmes seek to provide multiple points of intersection with disciplines in the Humanities and the Social Sciences, communicating modes by which a historical sensibility can enrich analysis and problem solving.

The courses are designed to break the stereotypes of History learning and create interest amongst students to study History. The programmes are organized to provide the greatest flexibility to its students. There are Core Disciplinary papers that provide the fundamental knowledge in the discipline of history and in the study of the History of India and the World. The programmes are envisaged to provide a large amount of choice so that the students can tailor their education on the basis of their interests. These provide not just knowledge and skills in history but also a vital skill in other disciplines as well. The B.A. History Programme courses are interdisciplinary keeping in mind that specialization in History is the key to access cognate skills from other disciplines.

The objective of the courses:-

- 1.To learn a basic narrative of historical events in a specific region of the world in a specific time frame.
- 2.To articulate factual & contextual knowledge of specific places & times, to make careful comparisons (across time, space & culture).
3. The ability to use bibliographical tools for the advanced study of history.
4. To understand and evaluate different historical ideas, various arguments and point of view.
5. To develop an appreciation of themselves and of others through the study of the past in local, regional, national and global context.